

G2G055- The Path To Leadership with Chuck Bender

I'm honored to have Chuck Bender joining me on my podcast today. Chuck is the CEO of two thriving companies, Attentus Technologies an outsource managed IT service provider and Skynet broadband, which offers high-speed internet access to rural Washington state.

Chuck is an accomplished leader, a successful entrepreneur, a prominent member of EO, which I'll explain in a few minutes. What the heck that is. A husband for 27 years and a father of two young men. Chuck is not just a leader in his community, in his business, and family, but he's a leader of leaders within EO.
